

RAJARSHI SHAHU COLLEGE OF PHARMACY, BULDANA.

SUMMARY

Type of Program	Certificate Course in “MEDICAL EMERGENCIES &amp; ITS PRIMARY MANAGEMENT”
Duration	6th October 2019 to 16th February 2020
Brief Report	A certificate course in was conducted by pharmacology department at the institute. The course was held between 06/10/2019 to 16/02/2020 having 30 hrs duration. The course started with introductory speech of the Principal, Dr. S. P. Jain who told the importance of the topic and given compliments. The course covered various topics like introduction to various types of medical emergencies and its primary level management to save the patient’s life. It includes the knowledge of medical emergencies related to various systems of body like CVS, CNS, GIT, respiratory and hematological with the symptoms, causes and its first aid/primary treatment and care. This course offers the knowledge of primary care and management of various medical emergencies which is helpful for the students to learn and become the socially active community pharmacist. It’s the priority to save the patient’s life and to admit the victim to the hospital for treatment. The certificates were distributed to the student through e-mail. The course was coordinated by Mr. S. S. Hurdade and well supported by the principal, administrative, teaching and non-teaching staff.

Mr. S. S. Hurdade
Coordinator

Dr. S. P. Jain
Principal
Rajarshi Shahu College of Pharmacy
Malvihiir, Buldana.