About the conference

The field of Genomics & Pharmacogenomics is growing rapidly and its development is making tremendous impacts in medical sciences and pharmaceuticals. Pharmacogenomics uses information about a person's genetic makeup, or genome, to choose the drugs and drug doses that are likely to work best for that particular person. Genomic research has changed that "one size fits all" approach and opened the door to more personalized approaches for using and developing drugs. This new field combines the science of how drugs work, called pharmacology, with the science of the human genome, called genomics. It has made huge advancements over the course of time and is continuing to influence various sectors.

Aims-Objectives:

Pharmacogenomics is the tailoring of drug treatments to people's genetic makeup, a form of 'personalised medicine'. This conference will upgrade professionals engaged in pre-clinical & clinical aspects of drugs with changed perspectives. It will also provide an opportunity to upgrade their knowledge of drug and thereby will help them go a long way in drug research using genomic & pharmacogenomic approaches.

This conference will be organized and conducted in order

- ➔ to understand how genomic information can be used to develop more personalized and cost-effective strategies for using drugs to improve human health.
➔ to lead to better ways of using drugs to manage heart disease, cancer, asthma, depression and many other common diseases.
➔ to produce new drugs that are highly effective and do not cause serious side effects.
➔ to create a huge platform for scientists, professors, students and delegates to share their ideas and innovations and in turn enhance the progression of science and technology in both business and academia around the world.
➔ to bring together a unique and international mix of genome researchers, geneticists, molecular biologists, health-care industrialists, leading universities and research institutions making the conference a perfect platform to share experience, foster collaboration across industry and academia, and evaluate emerging technologies across the globe.

Target Audience

This conference is targeted to students (B. Pharm,M.B.B.S.,B.Sc., M Pharm, M.Sc., M.S. Scholars), Academicians, Scientists, & Doctors who wish to get updated with this area .

About the conference

The field of Genomics & Pharmacogenomics is growing rapidly and its development is making tremendous impacts in medical sciences and pharmaceuticals. Pharmacogenomics uses information about a person's genetic makeup, or genome, to choose the drugs and drug doses that are likely to work best for that particular person. Genomic research has changed that "one size fits all" approach and opened the door to more personalized approaches for using and developing drugs. This new field combines the science of how drugs work, called pharmacology, with the science of the human genome, called genomics. It has made huge advancements over the course of time and is continuing to influence various sectors.

Aims-Objectives:

Pharmacogenomics is the tailoring of drug treatments to people's genetic makeup, a form of 'personalised medicine'. This conference will upgrade professionals engaged in pre-clinical & clinical aspects of drugs with changed perspectives. It will also provide an opportunity to upgrade their knowledge of drug and thereby will help them go a long way in drug research using genomic & pharmacogenomic approaches.

This conference will be organized and conducted in order

- ➔ to understand how genomic information can be used to develop more personalized and cost-effective strategies for using drugs to improve human health.
- ➔ to lead to better ways of using drugs to manage heart disease, cancer, asthma, depression and many other common diseases.
- ➔ to produce new drugs that are highly effective and do not cause serious side effects.
- ➔ to create a huge platform for scientists, professors, students and delegates to share their ideas and innovations and in turn enhance the progression of science and technology in both business and academia around the world.
- ➔ to bring together a unique and international mix of genome researchers, geneticists, molecular biologists, health-care industrialists, leading universities and research institutions making the conference a perfect platform to share experience, foster collaboration across industry and academia, and evaluate emerging technologies across the globe.

Target Audience

This conference is targeted to students (B. Pharm,M.B.B.S.,B.Sc., M Pharm, M.Sc., M.S. Scholars), Academicians, Scientists, & Doctors who wish to get updated with this area .

Resource Persons

- * Dr. Ritushree Kukreti, Senior Principal Scientist, Institute of Genomics & Integrative Biology, CSIR, N.Delhi

Welcome Message

In this day and age it is imperative that we can sustain and empower the exchange of knowledge, technology and the implications that they have in our society. Even more so, medical sciences have an enormous potential to grow and flourish touching the lives of millions and building the new health paradigm that our dynamic society is facing. Drug development is the process of bringing a new pharmaceutical drug to the market once a lead compound has been identified through the process of drug discovery. It includes preclinical research on animals, formulation development, analytical methodology, metabolism study & impurity profiling. Filing for regulatory status, of an investigational new drug is essential to initiate clinical trials on humans. Regulatory approval is required with a new drug application to market the drug. Novel initiatives include partnering between education institutes, research institutes, governmental organizations and industry.

It is our honour and privilege to welcome you all to join us at state level seminar on "Recent Avenues in Drug Development Process." The seminar is a scientific congregation which brings together researchers, scientists, key decision makers and industry professionals for a brief yet intense period of discussion, collaboration and addressing challenges in Drug Development. We believe this conference will be a highly rewarding educational and networking experience for all.
