Message from Hon'ble Chairman

Hon'ble Chairman,
Shri. Dhrupatraoji Sawle

I'm happy to hear that the e-bulletin from RSCP Buldhana is being published on quarterly basis. This will serve as a resource for students, faculty, and parents, providing them with the latest information on developments in the college. Our goal is to incorporate the idea that education and industry must work together by industry institute interaction, with the understanding that student's performance must remain consistent and dynamic at the highest levels. The institution has taken the best practices of education and combined them to inculcate the skills needed to become successful in the competitive world. I would like to congratulate the entire RSCP team for this initiative, in ensuring the over-all development of the students.

Message from Principal

Dr. Shirish Jain

It is a privilege to introduce you the 11th issue of our college e-bulletin (September- December 2025). The purpose of this bulletin is to provide information and focus attention to recent developments and innovations in the field of pharmacy. We are moving forward with the goal of creating pharmacy professionals that are upbeat, devoted, bright, and ethical to meet society's healthcare demands. I have faith that we are making an honest attempt to deliver first-rate teaching to our students. We are also dedicated to help the students and grow them intellectually, emotionally, and socially. In this e-bulletin, we acknowledge the achievements of our teachers and students. Congratulations to the entire faculty, students, and support staff for making the past four months so productive.

Message from Vice-Principal

Dr. Prakash Kendre

We are delighted to make available the 12th issue of the e-bulletin of the year 2025. I'm happy to share my thoughts on the publication of college e-bulletin. You may learn about the major achievements that college has made this last four month as you go through the pages. I am pleased with the advancements the college has made in developing in its students, a value-based education combined with current teaching-learning techniques. We are involving students in both academic and extracurricular activities. These activities are beneficial for both professional and personal growth. I congratulate each and every student and member of the faculty on their great achievements and work.

29th September: Awareness Session on POCSO Act and Prevention of Sexual Harassment Held at Rajarshi Shahu College of Pharmacy

An impactful awareness session on the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act was organized at Rajarshi Shahu College of Pharmacy by the NSS unit in collaboration with the District Legal Services Authority (DLSA), Buldhana under the guidance of Dr. Shirish Jain (Principal, RSCP). The session aimed to educate students and the general public about the POCSO Act, child protection laws, and preventive measures against sexual harassment at the workplace. The program was inaugurated by Dr. Prakash Kendre, Vice Principal, who stressed the importance of spreading awareness about child protection laws to build a safe and secure environment for children. The keynote address was delivered by Mr. Vikrant Marodkar, Member of DLSA, Buldhana, who elaborated on the provisions, objectives, and legal framework of the POCSO Act. He guided the audience on reporting mechanisms and legal procedures in cases of child sexual abuse, urging everyone to remain vigilant and responsible. Another chief guest, Adv. Ms. Sarika Bholane, highlighted the issue of women's safety at workplaces. She discussed preventive strategies and emphasized the consequences of sexual harassment, encouraging students to foster respectful and safe work environments. The session was graced by Dr. Shailesh Kewatkar (HOD, Pharmacognosy), Dr. Ashish Gawai (HOD, Pharmaceutical Chemistry), and all female staff members of the college.

The program was anchored by Mr. Rohit Salkute, NSS Program Officer, who ensured the smooth flow of the event. The vote of thanks was proposed by Prof. Meena Bhalake, appreciating the resource persons, dignitaries, participants, and NSS volunteers. NSS volunteers played a vital role in coordinating, managing logistics, and ensuring the success of the event. This awareness drive left a lasting impact on participants, underlining the significance of the POCSO Act and sensitization against sexual harassment in building a safer society.

10th October: RSCPians participation in University Level Inter collegiate Youth Festival 2025

The Youth Festival 2025-26 was jointly organized by Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University (SGBAU) and Smt. Kesharbai Lahoti College, Amravati. Under the valuable guidance of our respected Principal Dr. Shirish Jain, the Youth Festival Incharges — Mr. Rohit Salkute, Ms. Meena Bhalake, and Ms. Dwiptesha Dahake — took the responsibility of leading and coordinating the college's participation in this grand event.

A total of 36 students from our college enthusiastically participated in various categories, including Theatre, Music, Literary Events, and Fine Arts. The event was inaugurated on 7th October 2025 in the esteemed presence of dignitaries from SGBAU, marking the beginning of an energetic and creative four-day celebration.

On the first day, all literary events were conducted, where our students showcased their linguistic and intellectual abilities. On the second day, our college teams participated in the Indian Group Song, Poster Making, and On-the-Spot Painting competitions under the guidance of Prof. Rohit Salkute. The third day witnessed active participation from RSCP students in One Act Play, Skit, Folk Dance, and Mime events, guided by Prof. Meena Bhalake and Prof. Dwiptesha Dahake. On the final day, various art-related events such as Rangoli, Mehendi, and Qawwali were conducted, where our students displayed exceptional creativity and artistic flair. The Valedictory Function was held on 10th October 2025, during which the winners of different events were felicitated for their achievements. The festival served as a vibrant platform for students to explore and express their hidden talents while experiencing teamwork, leadership, and cultural exchange. Throughout the festival, Prof. Rohit Salkute also served as an Observer, appointed by the orders of the Vice-Chancellor, SGBAU, Dr. Nilesh Kadu (NSS Coordinator, SGBAU) and Dr. Rajiv Borkar (Students Development Officer, SGBAU) contributing significantly to the smooth and successful conduct of the event. The entire management and our Principal, Dr. Shirish Jain, appreciated the commendable efforts of the Youth Festival coordinators, faculty mentors, and all participating students for their enthusiastic representation of the college at the Inter-College Youth Festival 2025-26.

The four-day festival was truly a memorable experience, fostering creativity, collaboration, and youth leadership — a celebration of talent and spirit that enriched everyone involved.

10th October: Third National cGMP (Current Good Manufacturing Practices) Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm

The Third National cGMP (Current Good Manufacturing Practices) Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm to create awareness about the significance of cGMP among pharmacy students. The program began with an introduction to the objective of the celebration by Prof. Satish Shelke who highlighted the importance of cGMP in ensuring product quality and safety in the pharmaceutical industry. Prof. Rushikesh Diware delivered an insightful talk on the role of cGMP in the pharma industry, explaining how adherence to these standards contributes to the integrity and reliability of pharmaceutical products. Principal Dr. Shirish Jain addressed the students and emphasized the importance of understanding and implementing cGMP principles. He encouraged students to develop the necessary knowledge and skills during their academic journey to become competent professionals in the pharmaceutical sector. Postgraduate students — Mr. Aniket Tompe, Mr. Sarang Darokar, Miss Shruti Sonune, and B Pharm Students Miss Vaishnavi Mesare actively participated and expressed their views on the relevance and application of cGMP in today's industry. Their presentations were highly informative and engaging.

As part of the celebration, Prof. Manisha Jawale madam give the pladge of Pharmaceutical Sciences Students' Pledge of Professional Conduct, administered as per the Indian Drug Manufacturers' Association (IDMA) guidelines. This pledge reaffirmed their commitment to uphold ethical standards, professional integrity, and quality consciousness in their future professional endeavors

The event was hosted by Mr. Pramod Giram, PG student, who also expressed gratitude to the dignitaries, faculty members, and participants for their contributions to the success of the event. Vice principal Dr Praksh kendre, Dr Somnath Vibhute and all faculty members were present and appreciated the efforts of the students and organizers. Participants expressed their happiness and shared positive feedback about the activity, acknowledging that it enhanced their understanding of cGMP and its industrial importance.
